I am directed to invite your attention on the above subject and to inform you that the Comptroller and Auditor General of India in close coordination with the Audit Informatics Division of NIC is in the process of implementing a Centralised portal of GPF for all A&E Offices of IAAD. This portal will help to maintain a common web site and web application for dissemination of all information regarding GPF of the subscribers i.e. current GPF status, annual GPF status of last year and missing credits.

In order to facilitate the said application, mobile number of each GPF subscriber is required for authentication of the subscribers through OTP/ PIN and SMS from the portal when any available information is sought by the subscriber.

It is, therefore, requested to provide the required consolidated information relating to your department i.e. active mobile numbers of all the GPF subscribers to the PAG (A&E), Haryana within a week positively, under intimation to the Finance Department in the following format:-

Format for submitting information regarding mobile number of GPF subscribers.
