HARYANA GOVERNMENT

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

Notification

The 4th October, 1996

No. G.S.R. 91/Const./Art. 309/96.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Haryana hereby makes the following Rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to the Haryana Labour Department (Group A) Service, namely:—

PART I.—GENERAL

1. (1) These rules may be called the Haryana Labour Department Group 'A' Service Rules, 1996.

2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "Commission" means the Haryana Public Service Commission;

(b) "direct recruitment" means an appointment made otherwise than by promotion from within the service or by transfer of an official already in the Service of the Government of India or any State Government;

(c) "Government" means the Haryana Government in the Administrative Department;

(d) "Institution" means—

(i) any institution established by law in force in the State of Haryana; or

(ii) any other Institution recognised by the Government for the purpose of these rules;

(e) "Recognised university" means,—

(i) any university incorporated by law in India; or

(ii) in the case of a degree, diploma or certificate obtained as a result of an examination held before the 15th August, 1947, the Panjab, Sind or Dissa University;

(iii) any other University which is declared by the Government to be a recognised University for the purpose of these rules.

(f) "Service" means the Haryana Labour Department (Group A) Service.

The Service shall comprise the posts shown in Appendix A to these Rules;

Provided that nothing in these rules shall effect the inherent right of the Government to make additions to, or reduction in, the number of such posts or to create new posts with different designations and scales of pay, either permanently or temporarily.

4. (1) No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service, unless he is,—

(a) a citizen of India; or

(b) a subject of Nepal; or

(c) a subject of Bhutan; or

(d) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India; or

(e) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Sri Lanka or any of the East African Countries of Kenya, Uganda, the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar), Zambia, Malawi, Zaire and Ethiopia, with the intention of permanently settling in India:

Provided that a person belonging to any of the categories (b), (c), (d) or (e) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been issued by the Government.

(2) A person in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be admitted to an examination or interview conducted by the Commission or any other recruiting authority, but the offer of appointment may be given only after the necessary eligibility certificate has been issued to him by the Government.

(3) No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service by direct recruitment, unless he produces a certificate of character from the Principal, Academic Officer of the University, College, School or Institution last attended, if any, and similar certificate from two other responsible persons, not being his relative who are well acquainted with him in his private life and are unconnected with his University, College, School or Institution.

5. No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service by direct recruitment who is less than 21 years or more than 40 years on the last date of submission of application to the Commission.

6. Appointment to any post in the Service shall be made by the Government.

7. No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service, unless he is in possession of qualifications and experience specified in column 3 of Appendix B to these rules in the case of direct recruitment and those specified in column 4 of the aforesaid Appendix in the case of persons appointed other than by direct recruitment.

Provided that in the case of appointment by direct recruitment, the qualifications regarding experience shall be relaxable to the extent of 50% at the discretion of the Commission or any other recruiting authority in case sufficient number of candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes, Ex-servicemen and physically handicapped categories, possessing the requisite experience, are not available to fill up the vacancies reserved for them, after recording reasons for so doing in writing.

- (iii) by transfer or deputation of an officer already in the service of any State Government or the Government of India.

II LABOUR WING

- (o) In the case of Joint Labour Commissioner and Chief Conciliation Officer :—

- (i) by promotion from amongst the Deputy Labour Commissioner; or
- (ii) by direct recruitment; or
- (iii) by transfer or deputation of an officer already in the service of any State Government or the Government of India

- (f) in the case of Deputy Labour Commissioner :—

- (i) by promotion from amongst the Labour Officer-Cum-Conciliation Officer, Statistical Officer, Welfare Officer (Women) and Labour Welfare Officer; or

- (ii) by direct recruitment; or

- (iii) by transfer or deputation of an officer already in service of any State Government or the Government of India.

(2) If suitable eligible candidates are not available for appointment by promotion the post in question shall be filled by means of direct recruitment or transfer or deputation.

(3) All promotions unless otherwise provided, shall be made on seniority-cum-merit basis and seniority alone shall not confer any right to such promotions.

10. (1) Persons appointed to any post in the Service shall remain on probation for a period of two years, if appointed by direct recruitment, and one year, if appointed otherwise :—

Probation

Provided that :—

(a) any period, after such appointment, spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards the period of probation;

(b) any period of work in equivalent or higher rank, prior to appointment to any post in the Service, may, in the case of an appointment by transfer, at the discretion of the appointing authority, be allowed to count towards the period of probation fixed under this rule; and

(c) any period of officiating appointment shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no person who has so officiated shall, on the completion of the prescribed period of probation be entitled to be confirmed, unless he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(2) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority, the work conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory, may,

- (a) If such person is appointed by direct recruitment along with his services; and

- (b) if such person is appointed otherwise, than by direct appointment,

- (i) revert him to his former post; or

- (ii) deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment permit.

- (3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person, the appointing authority may,—

- (a) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been satisfactory.

- (i) confirm such person from the date of his appointment appointed against a permanent vacancy ; or

- (ii) confirm such person from the date from which a permanent vacancy occurs, if appointed against a temporary vacancy

- (iii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily if there is no permanent vacation.

- (b) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been satisfactory.

- 1) dispense with his Service, if appointed by direct recruitment, if appointed otherwise, revert him to his former rank.

- (ii) extend his period of probation and thereafter pass such order as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period.

Provided that the total period of probation, including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years.

11 (1) Before becoming eligible for confirmation, the Joint Labour Commissioner and Chief Conciliation Officer and Deputy Labour Commissioner shall have to qualify the departmental examination as prescribed in the Haryana Labour Department (Group B) Service Rules, 1987, for the Field and Technical Staff of the Labour Department if not already done.

(2) The Joint Labour Commissioner and Chief Conciliation Officer and Deputy Labour Commissioner shall have to undergo and qualify in the intensive course of social work at Calcutta or any other recognised University or institution, if not already done.

(3) As and when required by the Government, the Certifying Surgeon shall have to qualify in the short and long terms courses on industrial hygiene within such period as may be specified, at Calcutta or Bombay or in any other approved institution. Failure to qualify in said course within the specified period shall entail with-holding of his annual increment which would become due to him subsequent to the date of completion which would become due to him appeared but failed to qualify it. The increment will be allowed from the date of completion of examination which he qualified but he will not be entitled to get arrears of increment for the period, the same remained with held.

12. Seniority, inter se of members of the Service shall be determined by the length of continuous Service on any post in the Service.

Provided that where there are different cadres in the Service, the seniority shall be determined separately for each cadre:

Provided further in the case of members appointed by direct recruitment the order of merit determined by the Commissions shall not be disturbed in fixing the seniority:

Provided further in the case of two or more members appointed on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as follows:—

(a) a member appointed by direct recruitment shall be senior to a member appointed by promotion or by transfer;

(b) a member appointed by promotion shall be senior to a member appointed by transfer;

(c) in the case of a member appointed by promotion or by transfer seniority shall be determined by promotion or by transfer;

(d) in the case of members appointed by transfer from different such members in the appointments from which they were promoted or transferred; and

(e) in the case of members appointed by transfer from different cadres, their seniority shall be determined according to pay, preference being given to a member who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment, and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same, then by the length of their service in the appointments and if the length of such service is also the same, the older member shall be senior to the younger member.

13. (1) A member of the Service shall be liable to serve at any place, whether within or outside the State of Haryana, on being ordered so to do by the appointing authority.

(2) A member of the Service may also be deputed to serve under:—

(i) a company, an association or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned, or controlled by the State Government, a Municipal Corporation or a local authority or University within the State of Haryana;

(ii) the Central Government or a company, an association or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Central Government; or

(iii) any other State Government or an international Organisation, an autonomous body not controlled by the Government or a private body.

Provided that no member of the Service shall be deputed to serve the Central or any other State Government or any organisation or body referred to in clause (ii) or clause (iii) except with his consent.

14. In respect of pay, leave, pension and all other matters expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the Service shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may have been, or may after be adopted or made by the competent authority under the Constitution of India or under any law for the time being in force made by the State Legislature.

15. (1) In matters relating to discipline, penalties and appeals members of the service shall be governed by the Haryana Civil Services (Punishment and Appeals) Rules, 1987, as amended from time to time:

Provided that the nature of penalties which may be imposed by the authority empowered to impose such penalties and appellate authority shall, subject to the provisions of any law or rules made under section 309 of the Constitution of India, be such as are specified in Appendix C to these rules.

(2) The authority competent to pass an order under clause (d) of sub-rule (1) of rule 9 of the Haryana Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1987 and appellate authority shall be as specified in Appendix D to these rules.

16. Every member of the Service, unless he has already done so, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established.

17. Every member of the Service shall get himself vaccinated and revaccinated as and when the Government so directs by a special general order.

18. Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

19. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the appointing authority may impose special terms and conditions in the order of appointment if it is deemed expedient to do so.

20. Nothing contained in these rules shall affect reservations and other concessions required to be provided for Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes, Ex-Servicemen, Physically Handicapped persons or any other class or category of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the State Government in this regard, from time to time:

Provided that the total percentage of reservations so made shall not exceed fifty per cent, at any time.

21. The Punjab Labour Service (Class I) Rules, 1955, in so far as application to State of Haryana are hereby repealed:

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.
